Foreword

An idea . . . a dream . . . a school.      new students.

In January of 1962, the dream became a reality with the building being complete enough for one hundred and fifty frightened freshmen to enter Port Huron Catholic's doors.

In the three years that followed, Port Huron Catholic became a full fledged school with the addition of new teachers, new curriculum, and

In June of 1965 those timid freshman of 1961-62 will be the first class to graduate.

With the help of all the students, the spirit of Port Huron Catholic has grown and will continue to grow spiritually, academically, athletically, and actively.

Our Beloved Principal

You have inspired in us during our four years at Port Huron Catholic a love for God, a deep respect for the dignity of man, a love and appreciation for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and a spirit of loyalty which begins in our class and goes beyond to our teachers, our parents, and our friends. In this way, you have helped us become better individuals, better citizens of our community, and better members of the Mystical Body of Christ. We will be forever grateful to you.

It is the parting wish of the Senior class of nineteen hundred and sixty five that we live up to the ideals you have presented us thus sharing eternal happiness with our Creator, Jesus Christ.

In Appreciation

To you, Sister, the Senior class owes a special debt of gratitude. Since you have been with us from the first, we have especially felt your influence. Your spirit of love and loyalty has been highly contagious; in fact, at times we have had difficulty in matching our spirit and enthusiasm to yours! The seniors want to say a sincere thank you and wish you God speed.

ADMINISTRATION

"Go, therefore, and teach all nations . . ." These words, spoken by the Great Teacher, are forever implanted in the hearts of our faculty members. It is from them that we learn the truths. It is from them that we derive the courage to grow up and face the world as they once grew up and are now facing the world. To help and teach, is their mission and their life. They are truly a very great part of our "Heritage."

+ CHAPEL

Building Spiritually for a Happier Future

Just beyond the Chapel doors many students and faculty members find their spiritual needs fulfilled. Some enter these doors in times of depression seeking the comfort of the Divine Presence. Some come in loneliness seeking Divine Friendship. Some come in sorrow seeking forgiveness of their sins. And some come in thanksgiving for favors received. But all who come, no matter what their reason, find the help and security only God can give. "Ask, and it shall be given you: seek, and you shall find: knock, and it shall be opened to you."

Luke 11.9

Unknown to many of the students is the fact that daily Mass is offered in our Chapel. The Mass which is celebrated by Father McAnoy is attended by many of the faculty members who find it difficult to attend Mass in their respective parishes.

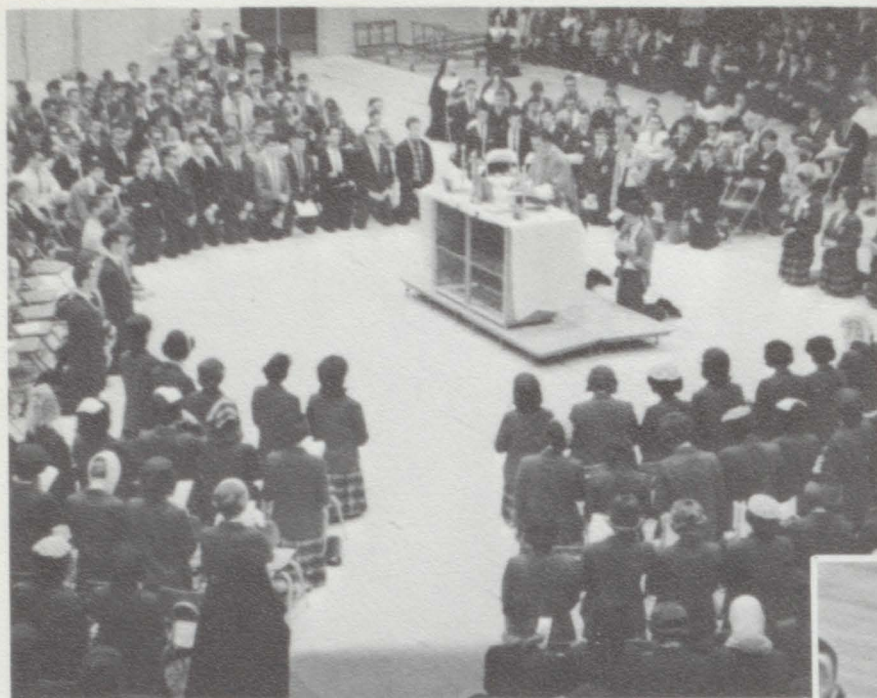

Many times during the course of the day students and faculty members make their way to the Chapel for a quick prayer or a short meditation.

"Confessions will be heard upon dismissal" is an announcement heard almost daily at P.H.C. With both Father McAnoy and Father Harrington hearing confessions many students are given the chance to gain the graces which the sacrament of Penance can bring.

The Mass is the center of activity around Port Huron Catholic on the First Friday of the month. The students come together around the altar and take advantage of the graces that are involved with the making of the nine First Fridays.

During the season of Lent many students heard Mass at 8 o'clock in the gym. In this way they could make their souls strong and healthy by nourishing them with the spiritual foods of Mass and Holy Communion.

The Holy Family is the model of every Catholic student. Helping each to live his life in the Love of Christ, the holiness of Mary, and the faithfulness of Joseph.

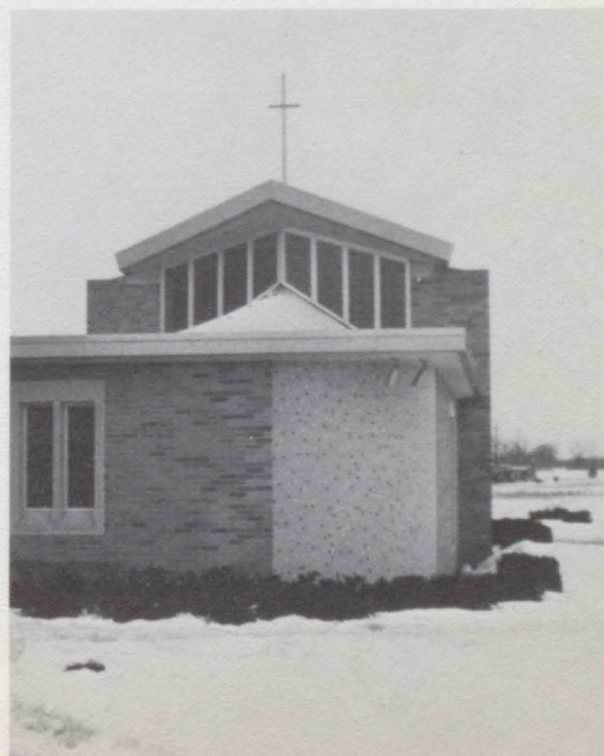

By meditating on the passion and death of Our Lord a student can better realize the purpose of his own suffering, and feel compassion for the sufferings of others.

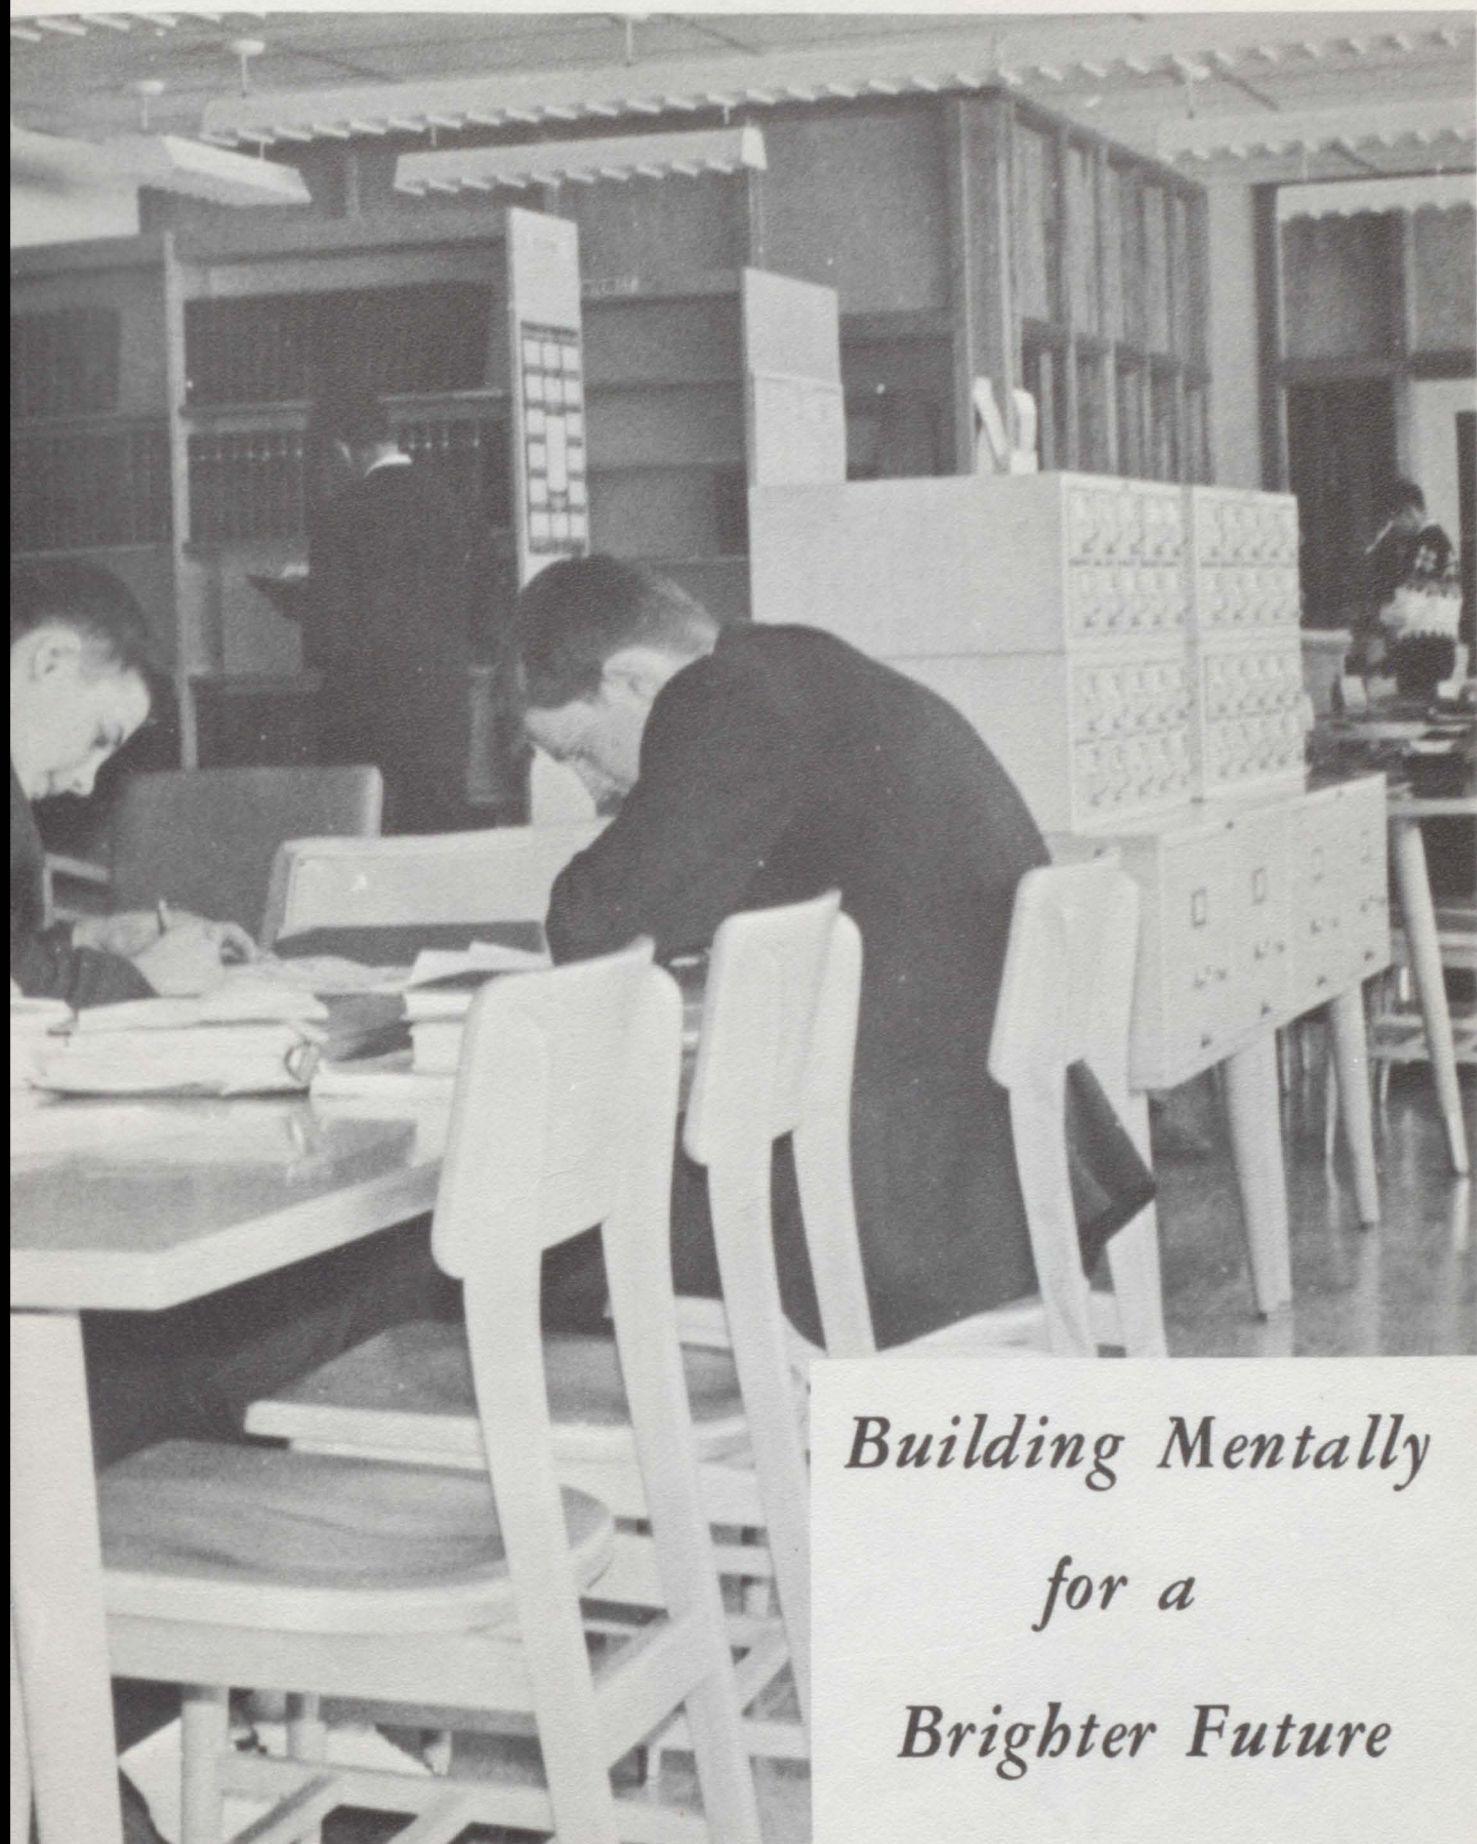

The outside of our Chapel, with its stain glass windows and silver cross high overhead, shows the people of the Port Huron area that the students of P.H.C. are learning not only to be good citizens but also good Catholics. A good Catholic makes a good citizen.

Building Mentally for a Brighter Future

The study of mathematics although perhaps difficult is most rewarding. Aside from the necessity of these courses by students bound for college, they lead to logical thinking and orderly development of the mind. As a good background in mathematics is becoming necessary in nearly every field, Port Huron Catholic offers a course in math for each year. Freshman may choose either Basic Math or Algebra I, there is Geometry for the Sophomore, Algebra II for the Junior and for the Senior there is Math IV.

Sister Brigid explains a problem to Pat Andrews and Jim Venia as Mary Gleason continues working.

Mathematics--Universal

Mrs. McDonald discusses a problem with her Algebra I class.

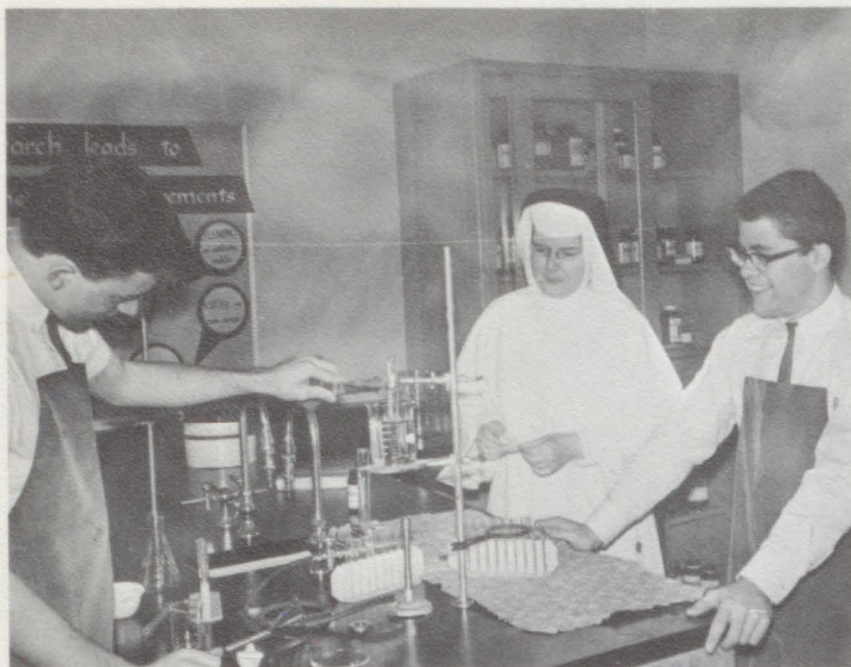

Geometry students take a test under Sister Alicia's supervision.

Language of Science

The proper way to graph a problem is demonstrated by Sister Brigid to her fourth year students.

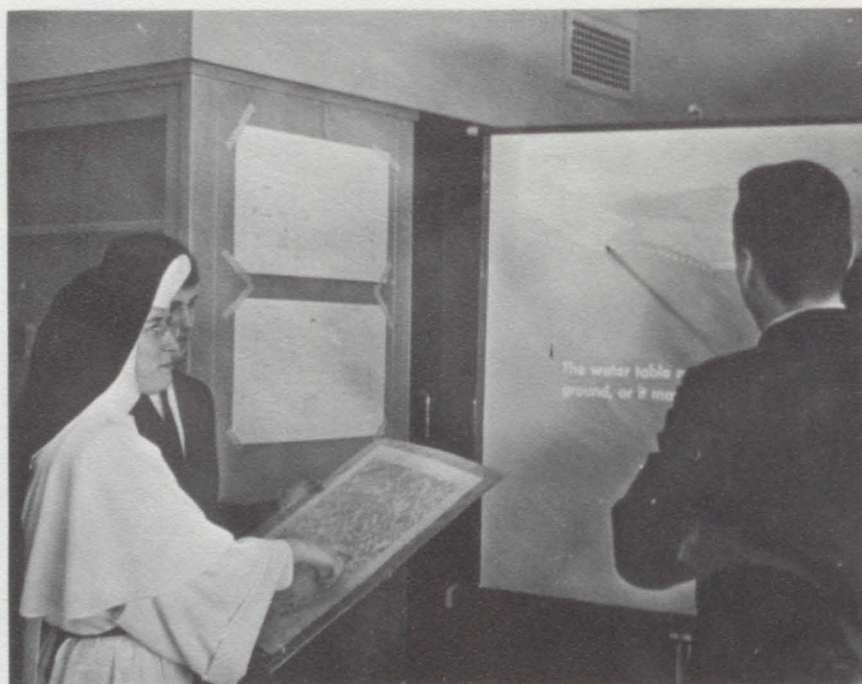

Richard McDonald and Dennis Ciul perform an experiment in Chemistry as Sister Roberta Marie looks on.

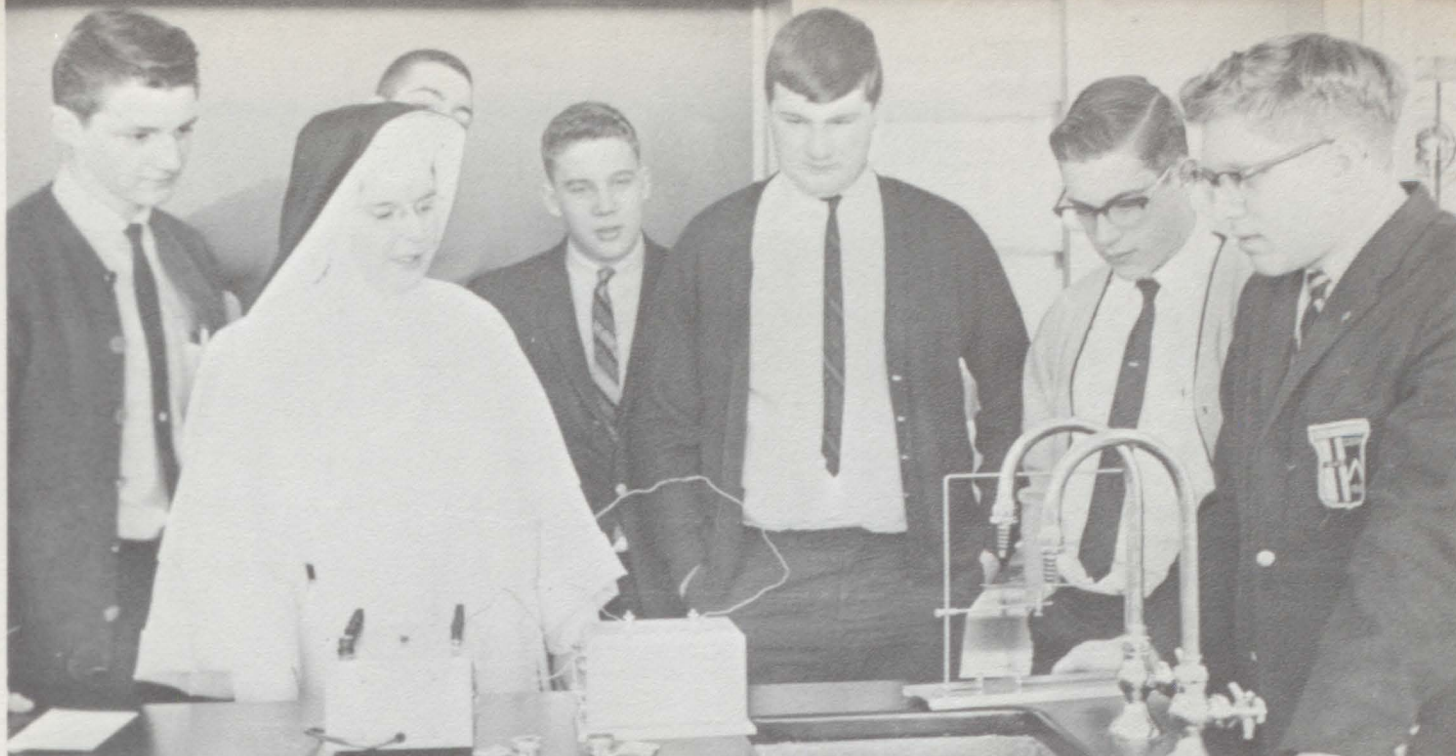

Through the various sciences the student becomes acquainted with the world in which he lives. At Port Huron Catholic a broad array of science courses are available to those wishing to learn more about their surroundings. These are Earth Science, Biology, Chemistry, Physical Science and Bio-Physics. In each of these courses the student gains an awareness of the why of things and a new respect for the natural wonders of Gods world.

Science--Students Learn

Sister Helen Raymond employs slides to help instruct Earth Science students Bill Kessler and Mike Scheible.

About Their World

Charles Johnson studies a slide under the microscope in biology.

The ability to communicate with others is a necessity to everyone. Correct speech and writing as taught in our English classes are important in any plans for the future which we might have. At Port Huron Catholic the English Department is staffed by experienced and capable instructors who are dedicated to teaching this most important subject. Those of us who now shoulder the burden of papers, themes, and essays will look back in a few years and appreciate their value.

Seniors girls in Sister Anthonita's English class follow a recorded play in their tests.

English – New

Sister Thomas Mary leads the discussion during her Sophomore English class.

The study of a second language is a great boon to the student for he must develop the selfdiscipline necessary to learn and master it. Another advantage will arise when we may be able to use the language we are now studying. Perhaps most important is the aid which the mastery of a second tongue gives our own English which we use every day. Students of Port Huron Catholic may take either French or Latin in each of their four years and as their proficiency increases they become able to read the great classics and catch some of the beauty which is lost in the translation.

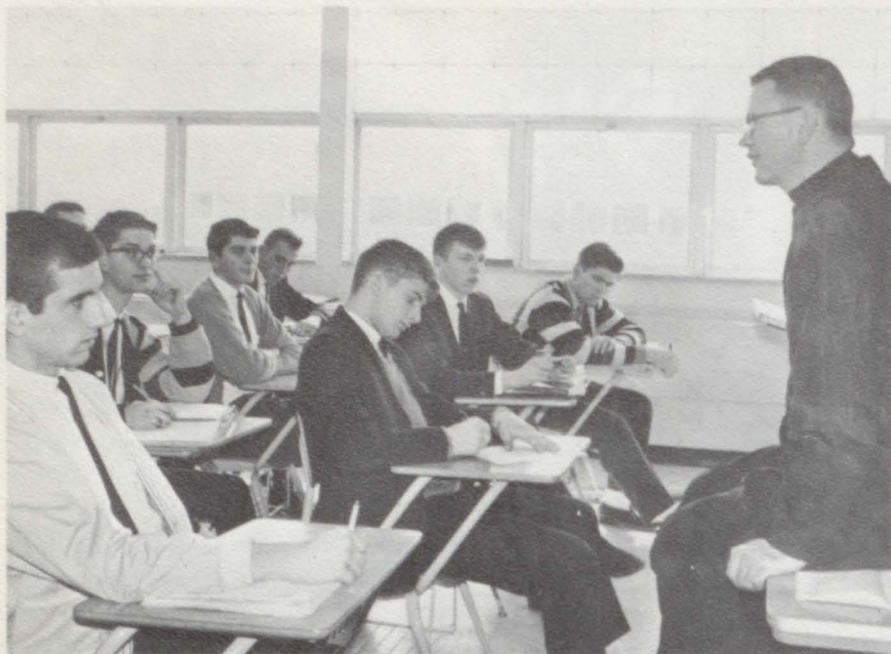

Sister Marie Mark explains the form of the verb to David Pfaff as Margaret Wright watches.

Vocabulary a Challenge

Sister Georgetta's French class listens attentively to a record in order to improve pronunciation.

Father Harrington clarifies a point to his senior religion class.

The chief reason for our attendance here at Port Huron Catholic indeed; the chief reason for the very existence of our school is the religious instruction which is provided. This instruction comes from trained priests and sisters and is designed to give the student a deeper appreciation of his religion. Through our religion classes and the religious atmosphere of the school we are preparing ourselves to live our faith in the future.

Religion

Building Our Bodies

"A healthy body means a healthy mind" This is the basic idea behind the physical education classes at Port Huron Catholic. Frequent vigorous exercise such as that provided in Phys. Ed. is a must for a strong healthy body. The mind works better and thinking is clearer when you are in good condition. At a time when the fitness of youth is a national scandal Port Huron Catholic is combating the problem with its excellent facilities and instructors.

Commercial

Typing, Shorthand, Drafting, Bookkeeping, and Record Keeping all come under the heading Commercial. These courses are very valuable to those students not planning to enter college and an added help to those who are. The skills learned in these classes are invaluable in many fields and once they are mastered by a student he will never regret having taken them.

Mike Daniels and the rest of the typing students strive for speed and accuracy.

Mr. Likens points out an error to Drafting student Rich McDonald while Tom Dunn works on diligently.

John Leahy prepares plates for the Addressograph as Sister Rose Anita and John Pemberton watch.

Homemaking

In order to prepare girls for role of housewives of the future, Port Huron Catholic offers Homemaking. This course teaches sewing and cooking so that those girls who do get married will have the proper background in these areas.

Homemaking students exhibit dresses which they have made. From top left Cecilia Theut, Louise Marcotte, Janet Young, Sandra Schultz, Margaret Gragowski, Marjorie Ronan, Mary Sue Ricketts, Varone Goulette, Ellen Johnson, Sarajane Nelson, Rosemary Jehl, and Jacqueline McEachern.

History is known to repeat itself. Through a study of the past the student sees how problems much like those he will soon face were solved in the past. In American Government and Economics students learn about the way which our country is governed as well as about the many and varied aspects of our economy.

Sister Leo Therese shows World History students Annette Kearns, Marsha Dinger, and Bernice Young the importance of map study.

Students Learn

Mr. Woodcock traces an event of the past for Junior American History students.

About the Past

Students Show Creative Talents

Sister James Martin shows Mary Gleason the correct position for soldering.

Port Huron Catholic offers courses in Music Appreciation and Choral. In these classes students become aware of the beauties of music and are given the chance to improve their own vocal talents.

Sister Jonathon leads the class in a song accompanied by Mary McGraw at the piano.

National Honor Society

Faculty advisor Sister Leah talks with National Honor Society president Doug Pfaff and vice-president Elaine Kirban.

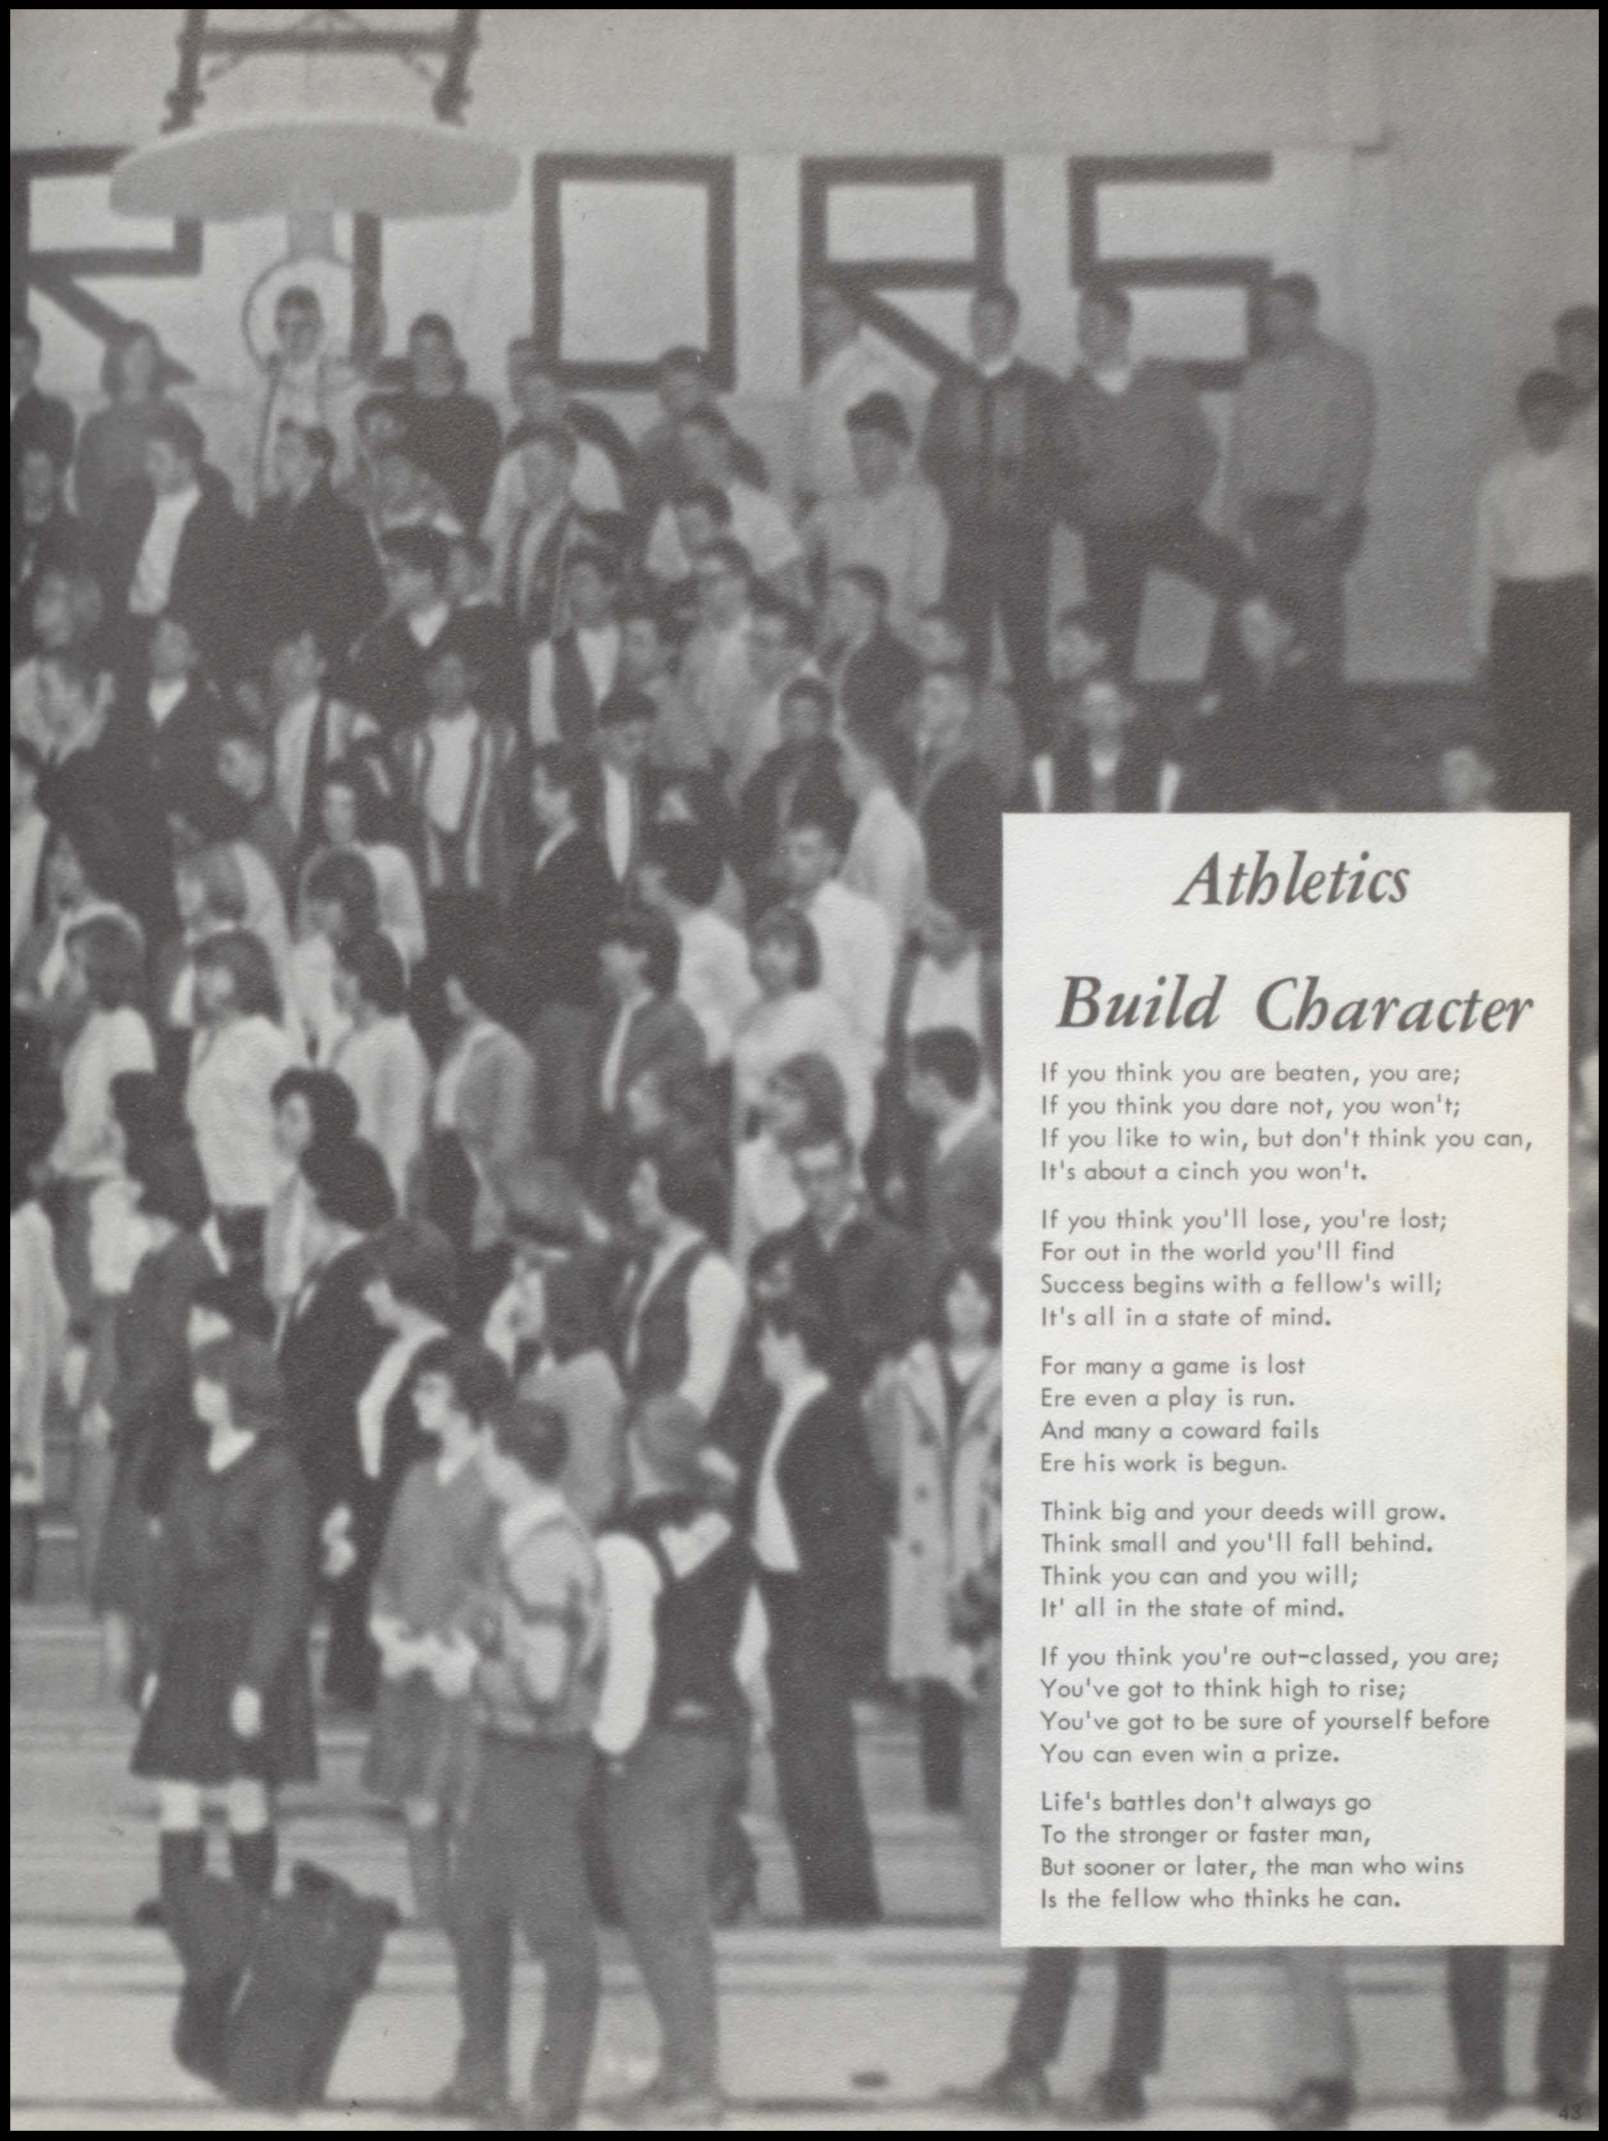

One of the highest honors which a student can merit is induction into the National Honor Society. The National Honor Society is an organization of students who have demonstrated outstanding qualities of scholarship, leadership, service and character which has chapters in most of the highschools throughout the nation. Port Huron Catholic's chapter is still young having been instituted only last year but it will most certainly grow in influence and importance in the near future.

WAR

Athletics

Build Character

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you won't;
If you like to win, but don't think you can,
It's about a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost;
For out in the world you'll find
Success begins with a fellow's will;
It's all in a state of mind.

For many a game is lost
Ere even a play is run.
And many a coward fails
Ere his work is begun.

Think big and your deeds will grow.
Think small and you'll fall behind.
Think you can and you will;
It' all in the state of mind.

If you think you're out-classed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can even win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
But sooner or later, the man who wins
Is the fellow who thinks he can.

Coach Dave Woodcock gives last minute advice to the Senior football players. Standing are: Coach Woodcock, Chuck Michaluk, Mike Major, Steve Kraswiuk, Ken Jansen, Jack Ward, Steve Waite, John Kwiatkowski, and Fred Anthony. Kneeling are: Marty Young, Terry Thomas, Dan DeLuca, Nick Dietrich, and Doug Pfaff.

Calling All Warriors!

The Warriors, though in their first year of Varsity football, proved that they could run faster and tackle harder than any other team in the league as they literally ran away with the S.C.A.L. trophy and title. Credit also goes to Coach Dave Woodcock, who not only taught the team everything he knows about football, but also taught them to play as a single, solid unit. Those long hours of practice really paid off.

Also important to the team are the student managers, Ray Foley, George Crawford, Jim Woods and Ron Lomasney.

The Warriors on the war-path! Defensive players Dan DeLuca (57), Gary Rossi (87), Marty Young (27), and Phil Wittliff (17) upset a Cros-Lex player, dissolving his hopes of scoring.

Much of the action fell on the shoulders of fullback Chuck Michaluk, the work-horse of the team. Here, he is thrown off-balance as he successfully intercepts a long pass.

THE REFEREE

The Referee runs up and down
And tears his thinning hair.
He yells and blows his whistle with
A John L. Lewis air.
He glowers when I take a step
Or brush against my guard,
And if I chance to hack a man
He throws the book — and hard.

The Referee's a flighty bird;
He has an eagle eye.
I can't get any foul past him
No matter how I try.
But if my guard hangs on my neck
Or smacks my ears down flat,
The Referee isn't looking or
He's blind as any bat.

Clubs and Organizations

. . . play an integral part in the high school career of our students. Opportunity is given to explore interests that are not assigned to school work. Through these opportunities students build a foundation socially and occupationally. Recreation, a feeling of accomplishment, and the enjoyment gained from giving one's time to the directed activity are only a few of the rewards from membership in a club. Other rewards are gained as the student is built socially by learning to share work, ideas, and responsibilities with other people. By learning to live a social world with social beings. The organizations at Port Huron Catholic have but one air — to build socially well equipped citizens in an adult world.

Heritage Staff

Another first for Port Huron Catholic came in the form of a yearbook. A yearbook with a staff of very inexperienced students who did not know what came first and then, what came next. But after weeks of worry and work the staff proudly looks forward to the first issue of the Heritage.

Man hours of hard and dedicated work were spent on our yearbook by our photographers, Chuck Guest and Jeff Alderdyce.

It would have been impossible to have a yearbook without our advertising staff. Here Mike Napolitan, Ed Scheffler, and Doug DeFraun found working hard.

Many hours of work must be spent to turn out a good edition and no one could be more sure of that than the Editor Marijane Ordowski and the Assistant Editor Floyd Kinnee.

ACTIVITIES

We are venturing into a new frontier: a frontier of social conflicts and challenges, a frontier that must and will be conquered.

Many of us will leave P.H.C. to undertake our life's work, while others will search for it in the higher education of college. We will be tested by pressures of a new nature, we will have to create for ourselves a new tempo of work and study. Now in High School with numerous activities we try to minimize the difficult social adjustment.

Activities play an important part in our life; for activities are people and people make up life.

The '65 graduates of Port Huron Catholic High School look forward to the historic day, when they will leave their familiar surroundings. They realize the importance of their Catholic education, which equips them to face the future with assurance and with a desire to help and serve mankind.

Graduation, they know, entails great challenges— the challenge of each senior to take their rightful place in this world as Christian adults, the challenge of each senior to always move forward and to face the "new frontier" with a spirit of serving God through their fellow man.

Planning for the senior year activities are senior homeroom advisors and class officers, Sr. Mary Alicia, R. S. M., Sr. Helen Raymond, O. P., Ardith Alderdyce, William Jakubiak, Sr. Roberta Maria O. P., Charles Michaluk, Sr. Anthonita I. H. M., Mary Catherine Gardner and Stephen Johnson.

Graduation Is A Stepping Stone

STEPHEN JOHNSON
Student Council
President

Many opportunities to cultivate the spirit of service, dependability, maturity, and leadership have been given them in their four high school years. To some, these opportunities are merely stepping stones to a continuing education in college. For others, such opportunities serve as an introduction to the working world.

In either case, as the seniors look back in retrospect they see and recollect the close relationships that united and enabled them to face with courage the trials and disappointments necessarily incumbent on a first graduating class. Such strengthening bonds have instilled a courage and determination that will better enable each graduate to step into the world of 1965 as a credit to his home and to his school.

CLASSMEN

The spotlight is now focused on the students who build upon the foundation already laid by our first graduating class — the UNDERCLASSMEN.

THE JUNIOR — Soon to accept the responsibility and privilege of being top man on the totum pole.

THE SOPHOMORE — The recently feathered brave gaining a position of new importance.

THE FRESHMAN — The papoose of one short year ago; now truly initiated into the tribe.

All these united with our Seniors contribute to the unique atmosphere and spirit of P.H.C. Each individual is a part of the school and the sum of all the parts is equal to the whole, through which great things are accomplished.

As we study and prepare for each day's classes we are building toward our future. In the fast moving world of today an education is a must for advancement in any field. Port Huron Catholic offers a wide and varied curriculum from which each student is able to pick the courses which will aid him in reaching his or her particular goal in life. We all should strive to get the most out of our classes for in the years ahead our education will be our greatest asset.

what it's like

The many young people at Michigan Bell join in congratulating the members of the graduating class. They know what it's like to work hard for a diploma, and get one.

They know, too, what it's like to want a rewarding job with a future, and find one. If you think you might like to join them, either now or after college, do stop by to see us. We'll be happy to discuss the wide variety of career opportunities in the exciting field of telephone communications.

To Students of Port Huron Catholic:

Learn more about your county. Hike along with us; see local wilderness, beautiful Black River, Mill Creek, walk over C & O RR bridge. 1670 persons from ages 4 to 74 have done it; you can make it, too. Bring your gang!

Hikes are four miles long, we go regardless of weather. All ages welcome, public invited; no charge. First-time hikers may come on any hike.

See your school bulletin board for hike dates in March, April, September, and October, 1965, or write for schedule.
